THE 4TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE
OHIO PERSON-CENTERED CARE COALITION

June 2, 2009

Aladdin Shrine Center
3850 Stelzer Rd • Columbus, Ohio • 614.475.2609

Reach for new heights in care delivery. Attend this conference to learn how Ohio nursing homes are focusing on a holistic model of care and putting residents at the heart of it all.

Plenary Speakers:

- Bonnie Kantor: What will it take to make person-centered care the norm?
- Aric Martin: Regulatory culture change.
- Kareen King: Placing human dignity on center stage.

About the Ohio Person-Centered Care Coalition

The Ohio Person-Centered Care Coalition influences and supports transformational culture change in long-term care environments. The coalition works to create a long-term care environment in Ohio where all individuals can experience meaning and purpose.

Principles and Values of Person-Centered Care

- Every person has strengths, gifts, and contributions to offer.
- Every person has hopes, dreams, and desires.
- Each person is the primary authority on his or her life, along with those who love them.
- Every person has the ability to express preferences and to make choices.
- A person's choices and preferences shall always be considered.

For more information, attend the 4th Annual Conference of the Ohio Person-Centered Care Coalition on June 2, 2009 in Columbus Ohio.

CEUs are pending through the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) and the Certifying Board for Dietary Managers (CBDM) courtesy of AOPHA. Contact Mary Ann Evans (614.444.2882/maevans@aopha.org)

About the Plenary Speakers

Bonnie Kantor is the Executive Director of the Pioneer Network, a leading organization in nursing home culture change. She is also the 2008 recipient of the American Health Care Association Friend of Quality Award.

Through her music, registered drama therapist Kareen King shatters negative stereotypes of older adults and gives voice to the human spirit no matter how aged the skin.

Nurses

The Ohio Board of Nursing accepts continuing education credits that have been approved by BENHA (or other accredited bodies). Reference OBN 4723-14-01 through 4723-14-19 for more information. Therefore, nurses can receive 6 hours of credit.

Social Workers

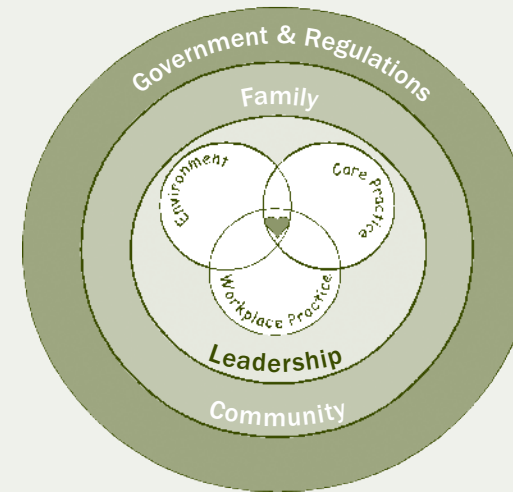

Continuing education credits for social workers will be provided by Eliza Jennings Senior Care Network. Contact Elise Tareshawty (216.226.0282/etareshawty@elizajen.org)

Therapy

Continuing education credits for Speech/PT/OT are pending, courtesy of Therapy Partners. Contact Shelly Grisik (800.297.1479/sgrisik@therapypartnersohio.com)

Aric Martin is a nationally-recognized speaker and author on topics related to health care. He is the Managing Partner of Rolf & Goffman LPA, a law firm that focuses on health care legislative and regulatory issues.
